

Narrow Road

by Carey Helmink

Theme or Scripture Basis Matthew 7:13-14

Synopsis Kerri and Hannah are on the broad path and discuss where they are headed. Hannah wants to play it safe and stay where most people travel but Kerri wants to go through the narrow doorway that she has heard from a friend is the better path. In the end we all have to decide if we are willing to go through the narrow door and if one can do it for us or with us, we must make a choice.

Kerri

Hannah

KERRI Where are you headed?

HANNAH Nowhere in particular, how about you?

KERRI I don't know. I'm just kind of sick and tired of sitting around here doing nothing.

HANNAH Yeah, me too. Do you mind if I walk with you?

KERRI That's fine with me.

walk silently for a while

KERRI This path seems really crowded at times. I don't know about you, but I'm feeling the need to see what else is out there. Something inside me tells me there's a better road than this.

HANNAH Really? I like the crowd. It feels safe here. It terrifies me to think of taking that path, for example. (points to a different path) Look how few people are going that way. You know what they say - "There's safety in numbers."

KERRI I guess I'm not all that interested in safety. I'm more interested in a path that is heading the right direction.

HANNAH It doesn't scare you to think of leaving this? It's all so... so familiar.

KERRI Well sure it scares me a little but that doesn't make it a wrong choice.
